

FARM DAYS AT THE MANGINI AGRICULTURAL MUSEUM

Sponsored by the Contra Costa County Farm Bureau in collaboration with
Mangini Agricultural Museum and UC Cooperative Extension
Educational Programs

FARMING IS FOOD, FLOWERS, AND FUN!

Students will explore the origin of food and fiber from plants and animals, our agricultural heritage, and plant a flower to take home. Small groups of students will rotate through stations that focus on agriculture, food, gardening, and the environment.

Who:	K-5th grade students (Limited to 60-120 students)
When:	Fall and Spring-call for available dates
Time:	Approx. 9:30AM - 11:30AM, lunch in the picnic area is optional
Where:	Mangini Agricultural Museum, 1201 W. 10 th St., Antioch (located at the Contra Costa County Fairgrounds)
Cost:	There is no fee to attend. The Farm Bureau will reimburse your school for busing to the site (up to $300.00).

Reserve your visit now! Contact: Marisa Neelon at 925-776-4295 or 925-646-6128 or at edprogram@sbcglobal.net or call Harriett Zych at 925-625-0646 or hvzych@comcast.net for more information or to hold a date.